

The diagram shows a vertical flag with a curved top edge. A purple line follows the curve of the top edge, and a black line follows the curve of the bottom edge. The flag is oriented vertically, with the top edge at the top of the page and the bottom edge at the bottom. The purple line is slightly offset from the black line, creating a narrow margin between them.

The diagram shows a tall, narrow flag with a curved top edge. A solid black line follows the outer contour of the flag, representing the finished edge. A second, purple line follows the same contour but is set inward from the black line, defining a safety margin. The flag is oriented vertically, with the top curve at the top and the bottom point at the bottom.
